SANTA FE IN BIG MERGER

ANOTHER SOUTH-WESTERN RAILROAD SOUGHT BY EDWIN HAWLEY AND ASSOCIATES.

NOW OWN MUCH STOCK

Oklahoma Central Will Probably Become a Part of this Great System.

WHI Hawley interests buy the Santa Fe railroads? Following the announcement that Edwin Hawley and his associates in finance, with regard to the operating of large railway systems, that the Rock Island-Frisco interests had acquired the valuable properties of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas lines, comes the further information that Edwin Hawley and his colleagues have acquired something like 30 per cent of the capital stock in the Santa Fe system. In all probability the Santa Fe with all of its vast holdings will be gobbled up by the greedy maw of the system presided over by Edwin Hawley within the next nine months. The new railroad king started out in the world of commerce by selling butter and eggs on commission, and who is heralded as the one man with whom the late E. H. Harriman always managed to keep out of a scrap with.

Railroad history has it that Harriman got mixed up with Hawley one day, and had in mind to "wallop" him, to use a Wall Street phrase, but when he bumped into the Hawley plan, Harriman found that Hawley was back of it with strength of a "bumper" at the end of a track, and he therefore withdrew.

What Hawley Owns

To give an intelligent impression of Hawley's ability to acquire railroad properties the following list of the roads he controls is submitted.

Miles
Minneapolis & St. Louis	1,027
Iowa Central	558
Chesapeake & Ohio	1,840
Chicago & Alton	834
Toledo, St. Louis & Western	451
Hocking Valley	347
Toledo & Ohio Central	441
M. K. & T.	2,790
Operated by M. K. & T.	272
Total Hawley control	7,930

With all the wealth and fame he has acquired, Edwin Hawley is a plain man, living unostentatiously, dresses plainly, and in discussing the buying of railroads fails to see where the excitement comes in. "The other fellow has the road and wants to sell it; I have the money and want to buy it; the price is agreed on, and I write a check for the amount involved, and that's all there is to it," says he.

Requires Big Check.

The Santa Fe system represents 9,792.50 miles of railway, and its going to require the writing of a mighty big check to take over the properties of the road, but it is believed that Edwin Hawley has both the money and the nerve at his command to buy it, notwithstanding the Santa Fe is not, that anybody knows of, seeking a buyer, but here it is that the Wizard Hawley will exercise his power.

It is up to him to "show" the Santa Fe that is best for the road or come into the big combine, and Hawley's admirers are willing to wager dimes against doughnuts that the Santa Fe fly will go into the parlor of Spider Hawley. This acquisition would give the Hawley interests control of nearly 20,000 miles of up-to-date railway throughout the United States and would class him up with James J. Hill.

Road Is Improved.

Hawley and Hill are known to be friends, and to those who care to read between the lines, this fact may presage something even bigger in railroading than the purchase of the Santa Fe. That there is something doing in the railroad orld, and that Edwin Hawley and his associates are in the game, is a fact patent to the minds of all who are watching the signs of the times.

Memphis Feels Earthquake.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 23.—A slight earthquake shock was felt in Memphis and vicinity early today. No damage is reported.

ARE NOT INTERESTED

STATE OFFICERS WILL NOT BE CONNECTED WITH REORGANIZATION OF COLUMBIA BANK.

GOVERNOR HASKELL TALKS

Replies to Criticisms of Newspapers on Relations of Menefees.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 23.—No state officer is interested in the reorganization of the Columbia Bank and Trust company, according to Governor Haskell, who issued a statement today in reply to criticisms made by the Wall Street Journal and other papers. That no state officer owed the Columbia Bank and Trust company a cent, save State Treasurer Menefee, who had two $10,000 notes in the bank, is also asserted. The statement follows:

"We note the Wall Street Journal has asked some questions. Since you copy their questions, I am always pleased to answer any question so coming before the public.

"In the first place, there is no state official in charge of reorganization of the Columbia Bank and Trust company. Reorganization is not our business. When the state officers have liquidated a bank, and caused its depositors and other creditors to be paid, our duty ends.

"No state officer owed the Columbia Bank and Trust company any sum whatever, except Mr. Menefee, whom it appears from the records, did his banking business at that institution and owed the institution two notes of $10,000 each. These came into the hands of the state bank commissioner as part of the assets of the bank. Mr. Menefee has already paid one note and the interest thereon in full, although it was not yet due. The other note, which is also not due for some months yet he has amply secured and assures us it will be paid before maturity.

"There is nothing strange about a state officer doing the usual banking business of his private affairs in some bank. I suppose that most public officers have some bank with which they do business. This answers questions numbers one and two.

Eight Questions Answered.

"Question number three: We have paid out such amount of the guaranty fund as was necessary to pay all creditors on demand.

"Question number four: Another assessment could be levied at once if needed, but it is not necessary to do so.

"Question number five: The individual deposits were one million eighty four thousand dollars when the state took charge of the bank. They are now paid down to fifty-two thousand dollars, and practically all of the unpaid balance is subject to off-set against notes held by the bank against the same parties.

"Question number six: Certainly there has been no independent accountant examining the condition of the bank. We have accountants connected with the state banking department who perform those duties, and we certainly call in no independent accountant. Any interested party, however, who cared to stand the expense, could do so.

No Politicians' Notes.

"Question number seven: We don't find a single politician's note in the assets of the bank. The Wall Street Journal should not measure the Oklahoma practice by the practices of the Wall Street district.

"Question number eight: The true amount of the so-called guaranty fund is whatever amount may be necessary to take care of any losses. It may be payable in cash or in certificates due at a future date.

"The concluding remark about a reorganization of the bank is one that the state officers have nothing to do with. We are not in the reorganization business. That is a feat of Wall Street, and which they usually base on wind and glittering prospects, but a reorganization in Oklahoma would have to be on a perfectly solid and substantial basis before it could hope to meet our approval."

Eats Apples from Tree He Planted 71 Years Ago.

Enid, Okla., Oct. 22.—R. W. McKee of Enid, while on a visit recently to his old home at Fort Wayne, Ind., ate apples from a tree which he planted with his own hands seventy-one year ago. He is eighty-one years old now. He and his wife went back to Fort Wayne on a visit and to attend the golden wedding of a sister of Mr. McKee.

Louisville, Ky. Visited by Storm.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Louisville and many towns in Northern Kentucky were swept early today by a severe wind storm and heavy rains, which did considerable property damage.

No loss of life is reported.

The wind velocity ranged from thirty-five to sixty miles an hour.

ROOSEVELT HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Elephant Bull Charged Him at Close Range. Saved by a Tree.

Nairobi, British East Africa, Oct. 23.—Mr. Crosswell, a government engineer in the public works department at Nyeri, came into Nairobi, and brought word that Mr. Roosevelt had a very narrow escape when shooting his first elephant bull. When shooting elephants it is often necessary to creep into the herd and shoot the selected bull at range of fifteen to thirty yards.

Mr. Roosevelt, accompanied by Mr. Cunningham, the big game hunter and guide, followed this procedure and killed his elephant at the second shot. Suddenly, before Mr. Roosevelt could reload, another elephant bull charged him at close range from the herd. Both Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Roosevelt got behind trees and Mr. Cunningham turned the bull from Mr. Roosevelt just in time.

Other reliable sources confirm the account of Mr. Roosevelt's narrow escape.

Taylor Appointed Major-General

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 23.—Adj. Gen. John L. Galt was notified today of the appointment of William Taylor of Atus, Ok., as Major-General of Oklahoma, to succeed William Cross, resigned. Appointment was made by Gen. W. L. Cabell of Dallas, commanding Trans-Mississippi Department, United Confederate Veterans.

The Following Appears Unusual to Come from An Ardmore Press.

Daily the Dunn boom is growing. Reports reach Ardmore that in all sections of the state demands are being insistently made that he permit his name to go before the August primaries.—Ardmore, Democrat.

THE IMPSON TRIAL

Jury Secured, State's Witnesses Examined.—Will go to the Jury Tomorrow.

A telephone message from Judge
Stone at Coalgate Saturday night says that a jury had been secured in the Impson murder case and that the state had about completed the examination of its witnesses.

Judging from the progress made in the case Saturday, Judge Stone thought that the hearing of the evidence and the pleadings of the attorneys would be completed in time to give the case to the jury some time tomorrow. It will be remembered that this case was taken to Coal-gate on a change of venue from this county.

Miss Mamie Resigns Position.

Miss Mamie Rogers, one of Ada's sweetest and more deserving young ladies, has resigned her position as cashier with the Ada Electric Light and Power company.

The News shall miss Miss Mamie,
for she was our nearest and most attractive office neighbor, and throughout our interchange of visits,
she, effishly to drink our artesian water and we tantalizingly to borrow a match for our pipe and to tease.

There was the dandiest goodfellowship, for both of us were working folks and waiting for our ships to come in. And by the way it is whispered that her ship is 'land ahoy' and that it is a good rock ribbed one and deeply anchored.

Miss Mamie left for Oklahoma City
yesterday for a little visit.

Resolution of Thanks.

Be it Resolved that the Oklahoma
Annual Conference Methodist Protestant Church tender their heart-felt thanks to the good people of Ada for opening their homes for our comfort. Also to Rev. C. C. Barn-hardt and his good people for the use of the Asbury M. E. Church South-church house—and also to our host, Rev. Y. Coleman, for the way he has handled his part of the work. Especially to Rev. Wilson, pastor First M. E. Church for his address of welcome for the churches, and to Senator Roddie for his kind words. And to the papers of the city of Ada for their kind words for us.

CHANGE BOUNDRY LINE AND REDUCE THE POPULATION

PETITION CIRCULATED IN ROUND PRAIRIE AND CITRA PRECINCTS TO ANNEX TO PONTOTOC CO.

This County Would Welcome the Entrance Within Its Political Unit of These Progressive Citizens on the East.

Reports from the south side of the county are to the effect that petitions are being circulated among the taxpayers of Round Prairie and Citra
for the purpose of calling an election to vote a strip of land four miles wide and eleven miles long, away from this county and join the same to Pontotoc county. Some citizens from that territory have visited Holdenville during the week and state that the movement is not gaining any proportions, and say that it is simply an idea of citizens on the Pontotoc county side to get themselves farther away from the county line. It is understood that perhaps not more than ten taxpayers have as yet signed the petition, and that it is hardly possible that a sufficient number will place their names to it.

The strip sought to be transferred will cover 44 square miles and will take in the town of Citra, and run directly through the farm of W. W.
Barnett in Round Prairie precinct.—

FRIED RATTLESNAKE WITH CREAM GRAVY

Cowboys Make Supper Off One.
"Tastes Just Like Fried Chicken," Declared One.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 22.—Fried rattlesnake with cream gravy was the rare delicacy Harry Purcell and Gene Cumming, cowboys from the Osage nation, partook of at a dinner they gave for themselves here tonight. Really more people were invited than accepted. Many who came prepared to eat remained but to watch others dine.

The cowboys killed one snake, a large one, with seventeen rattles
and a button on their ranch today.
They brought it here and after much difficulty found a cook who would prepare it. A curious crowd stood about and watched the men devour
the rattler.

"It certainly does taste like spring chicken," said Cummings, as he reached for a fifth helping of reptile.

Mr. J. B. Palmer notified the News today that he knew the man who knew who had found the $25.00 lost by a poor farmer stopping at the Texas wagon yard last week. The News published a free lost notice for this poor young farmer and was instructed by him if the money should be found to send same to him by

In the District Court Saturday the entire day was devoted to the hearing of divorce cases, and a pretty good list was disposed of, the greater number being published in the Daily News of Saturday. Since that time the following have been taken up and decrees for divorces granted:

Mattie Rollins vs. E. M. Rollins, decree for divorce.

G. W. Barnett vs. Annie Barnett,
decree for divorce.

Chessie Franklin vs. R. S. Frank-

TERMS: Are within the reach of any industrious man woman or child who has enough get up to try and better their condition. You can pay them out in small monthly payments.

If You Want to Build A House We Will Loan You Part of the Money

How often have you heard the remark, "I could have bought this or that property in this or that town for so and so, which has since made the owners rich." This has been true of dozens of the good towns and cities of Oklahoma and it will be true of Ada.

Don't allow this and that excuse to keep you from buying some of these cheap lots—they will soon be sold and the opportunity gone.

Buy now and in twelve months from now you wont be standing around talking about what you could have done, but can point to what you have done.

DRUMMOND-SMITH

The following from the Weleetka American is that paper's mention of the marriage of one of its city's popular adopted daughters to one of Ada's leading adopted sons.

Drummond-Smith.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ruth Smith, of this city and Charles Richard Drummond, of Ada, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Taylor Smith Wednesday evening at four o'clock, was by far the most beautiful ever witnessed in this city.

The beautiful ring service was read by Rev. J. D. White of Ada. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Lorene Drummond, of Shawnee, and the groom by William McReynolds, of Paris, Texas, and little Miss Nina White of Barnum, Texas, as ring bearer. Miss Ida Mae Lindsay, of Okemah, playing the wedding march.

The bride wore a beautiful hand-made crepe metor over white taffeta richly trimmed in real lace with court train, a bridal veil looped up with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses.

The maid of honor wore a beautiful hand embroidered pink chiffon over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Lindsay wore cream voile with gold trimmings. The tiny little ring bearer looked very sweet in a white lingerie with tiny pink socks and slippers, carrying a large white lily in which the ring rested.

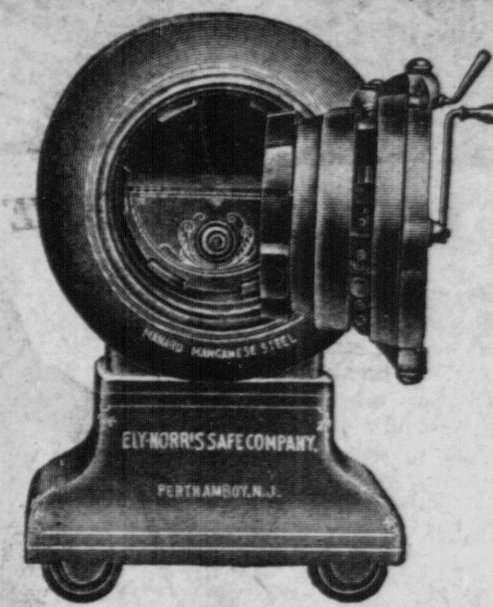

The house was darkened and lighted with beautiful shaded lights. The entire color scheme of the afternoon was green and white in the drawing room and reception hall, and pink and white in the dining room. One entire end of the drawing room was banked with a curtain of smilax against a back ground of white roses. Here was placed the altar with tall silver candelabras and tapers.

The bridal party passed through the dining room and reception hall and on to the altar where the ceremony was performed while the wedding march was played and continued in low soft strains while the service was being read.

After the ceremony the guests were ushered into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in pink carnations and white roses mingled with the green smilax, where a delightful luncheon was served the four colors being carried out effectively during the luncheon.

Grand Leader ADA Oklahoma

PASSING AWAY OF SENATOR MCCARREN

Brooklyn Democratic Leader Foe of Tammany Succumbs to Enervable.

New York, Oct. 23.—Patrick H. McCarren, state senator, and one of the political powers in the borough of Brooklyn, died tonight after lingering for several days between life and death. Senator McCarren underwent a surgical operation a few days ago for appendicitis.

"Pat McCarren," as he was generally known, was a picturesque figure in New York politics, recently a foe of Tammany and Chief Murphy, he waged a relentless war on the adherents of the Greater New York Democratic machine, and received the loyal support of his constituents. Howled down by Tammany men in conventions, he would return again to the fight undaunted.

His death comes in the midst of a bitter three-cornered mayoralty campaign, and while Senator McCarren was unfriendly to Tammany, he gave his support to Judge Gaynor, the regular democratic nominee, who is supported by the Tammany organization.

One of Senator McCarren's friends was Martin Littleton, former president of the borough of Brooklyn, and once a resident of Texas.

Ada Pleases Him.

Mr. R. E. Goggins, property owner in Ada, resident of Weston is again looking over Ada with the glad eye. He says the prospect suits him and that he has nothing else to sell at present.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST GINNERS

LOGAN COUNTY GRAND JURY GOES AFTER THE GINNERS

Conspiracy Alleged in Fixing Price to be Charged for Ginning Cotton.

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 23.—The special Logan County Grand Jury which has been in session for two weeks under direction of Attorney General West, today returned two indictments against ten defendants for alleged violation of the Oklahoma anti-trust of the First Legislature, charging conspiracy to fix the price to be charged for ginning cotton and the price to be paid for seed cotton and cotton seed. The first indictment purports to cover conditions in the Crescent neighborhood, from where the complaint first came, and the second bill deals with alleged parties in the County generally. The defendants named in the indictments are W. H. Coyle, cotton buyer and oil mill operator; F. E. Houghton of the firm of Houghton & Douglass, cotton buyers; E. Cook, associated with the last named firm; Southwestern Oil Company, Houghton & Douglass Cotton Company, W. H. Coyle consolidated companies and W. H. Coyle Oil Mill Company, all of Guthrie; R. A. Vose of the Southwestern Cotton Oil Company and the American National Bank of Oklahoma City; W. O. Cawthon of Crescent City and Oklahoma City, and the Cawthon Cotton Company. Bond of each of the defendants was fixed at $2,000.

The indictments charge that these persons have a virtual monopoly and recited conditions applying at Love, Seward, Meridian, Guthrie, Falls and Shiloh.

Ginnings are charged with having combined to advance the price for ginning from $3.50 to $5 per bale, and that their other acts have been in restraint of trade, adversely affecting the public at large, and particularly the persons needing the services of a cotton gin. It is charged that gin owners are acting unlawfully because of their refusal to gin cotton for all who desire it done. In a public letter recently issued, the Attorney General took the position that gins are public utilities and that the public generally is entitled to have cotton ginned, whether the persons owning the gins desire it or not.

Ginnings claim objection was made to ginning for competitive buyers, and that the price they were charging was below actual cost to the gins, which accounts they say, for the advance to $5 per bale of lint cotton.

The gins are controlled by oil mills, which use the seed, and where cotton is bought by competitive bidders, the seed is, of course, controlled by competitive oil mills or their agents. The actual cost of ginning last season, they say, was $4.50 per bale, allowing no interest upon the investment, and this year, they figure, the cost will be greater, owing to the light crop and the short gin runs.

Dale & Bierrer, attorneys for F. E. Houghton, Houghton & Douglass Co., and E. Cook, made the following statement tonight:

"The persons indicted are among the most reputable business men of Oklahoma and regarded by the public generally as being men of high integrity. We feel that the prosecutions are wholly unwarranted under the actual facts, and the parties indicted, while of course is not pleasant to them, do not feel that they have committed any crime or that they ought to have been subjected to any prosecution."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
